Attitude towards tax planning and level of risk

Auria UK manages risks to ensure compliance with legal requirements in a manner which ensures payment of the correct amount of tax.

When entering into commercial transactions, Auria UK seeks to take advantage of available tax incentives, reliefs and exemptions in line with, and in the spirit of, tax legislation. Auria UK does not undertake tax planning unrelated to such commercial transactions.

The level of risk which Auria UK accepts in relation to UK taxation is consistent with its overall objective of achieving certainty in the group's tax affairs. At all times Auria UK seeks to comply fully with its regulatory and other obligations and to act in a way which upholds its reputation as a responsible corporate citizen. In relation to any specific issue or transaction, the Board of Directors of each Auria UK entity is ultimately responsible for identifying the risks, including tax risks, which need to be addressed and for determining what actions should be taken to manage those risks, having regard to the materiality of the amounts and obligations in question.

Relationship with HMRC

Auria UK seeks to have a transparent and constructive relationship with HMRC during communications in respect of developments in Auria UK's business, current, future and retrospective tax risks, and interpretation of the law in relation to all relevant taxes.

When submitting tax computations and returns to HMRC, Auria UK discloses all relevant facts and identifies any transactions or issues where it considers that there is potential for the tax treatment to be uncertain.

Any inadvertent errors in submissions made to HMRC are fully disclosed as soon as reasonably practicable after they are identified.
